Wide and varied areas of opportunity are incorporated in the heart and system of York Community High School. Because the highest of standards are provided and expected at York, the events and the classes shape, mold, and enrich the lives of those students who are bold and courageous enough to put forth effort, to accept the challenge, to fulfill the opportunity that is York. From Registration to Graduation, Homecoming to Prom, the school year has been an endeavor to cultivate opportunity as it is presented to each pupil. View, then, a PORTRAIT OF OPPORTUNITY.

The sparkle detected in York's Homecoming Royalty denotes excitement of the evening and enjoyment of the dance. Freshmen: William De Bartolo and Juliet Giuntoli; Sophomores: Allen Rank and Lois Hason; Seniors: Mary Kay Jacobs and George Fantozzi; Juniors: Susan Spencer and Jeffery Licht.

Kathy, Even though we usually write in study classes together, we'll be at the same table. I hope I'm with you in some classes next year. Good luck always, Mary

From the first exciting cheer to the last moment of the dance, York's Homecoming was a weekend to remember. The Festivities began on Friday at the pep rally, highlighted by the announcement of the Homecoming royalty and the traditional senior skit. Saturday, the activities continued with the theme of "Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea" presented in the parade. Another of the day's memorable events was the York Dukes' first triumph in eighteen years over the Hinsdale Red Devils. The dance and the crowning of royalty, provided a gay atmosphere to wind up an exciting Homecoming for York.

Dear Cathy
Best of luck in the future, and with Joy

Parents and principal get acquainted at the annual P.T.A. Open House.

Early in the year students and faculty alike were already deeply involved in activity. The P.T.A. Open House helped establish a stronger parent-teacher understanding. Students also strengthened York with such outstanding contributions as the International Printing Award and polished performances of the York Band. Another highlight of the opening weeks of school was the day the juniors received their class rings.

Dear Kathy
It's been fun knowing you this year and being in your gym period. I hope we can be together more often next year. Good luck with

York Begins Year on Note of Activity

The York-Hi Printing Staff poses with pride after winning the First Place International Printing Award and bringing recognition to York. Mr. L. N. Woodburn is sponsor.

Representative of the high quality work in both the dramatic and technical fields of the Drama Department are scenes from Anastasia and Arsenic and Old Lace. Anastasia was the final major production last year and Arsenic and Old Lace was the first offering this year. Measuring up to past records, these plays are typical of the success of this busy, hard-working department.

Sue Joy is presented as the Princess Anastasia.

Ted Hild as Chernov, the banker, is hard at work plotting to gain control of Anastasia's inheritance.

Carole Mathews portrays a poor servant woman who tries to prove Anastasia's true identity. Sue Joy listens intently.

Tony Pugliese, Bill White, Linda Newhoff, Tom Keever, Dale Chappelow, and Louis Jendras in an exciting scene from Arsenic and Old Lace. "Take him to headquarters!"

Michael Hitchcock and Dale Chappelow conspire to move Noel Tetrev (the body). "Don't drop him!"

Long Hours of Rehearsal Bring Glittering Success to Productions

We Shall Remember Him . . .

Monday, November 25, 1963, our flag flew at half-mast; the building was empty and still. As a mark of respect, no classes convened on Monday, November 25, the day of services for John F. Kennedy, the thirty-fifth President of the United States, who had been assassinated Friday, November 22, in Dallas. Many will recall when he spoke in York's gym.

WATER CARRIERS: Susan Hagensee, Martha Koval, Carol Wilson, Jean Stoker, Leslie Johnson, Priscilla Jones, Nancy Nelson, Kathryn Gullion.

Forty-two years of feasting! For the past forty-two years Latin Club has held its annual Roman Banquet to acquaint its members with the customs of the ancient Romans. Among these are the rituals of the Vestal Virgins, the water carriers, and the spectacular entrance of the slaves carrying the roast pig. All banquet guests dress in the traditional costume of the day.

The court was enhanced by the Student Council sponsored Christmas tree, gaily decorated with hand made ornaments by many of the clubs.

Christmas decorations . . . with renewed spirit and dedication.

"Deck the Halls with Boughs of Holly . . ."

York's halls reflected the Spirit of Christmas as all four classes joined in decoration. Brotherhood with Peace on Earth was the theme used. Clubs held festive parties in the days preceding that wonderful two weeks' vacation. In keeping with the true meaning of Christmas, many organizations undertook service projects.

Orchesis Presents Annual Show

Adding a touch of gaiety to the school year were such events as the annual Orchesis Show, a part of the GAA program, and the Mardi Gras, a yearly event staged by the French Club. Members of Orchesis treated its audience to original modern dance performances. Mardi Gras was also special. This year guests came in gay costumes to attend a banquet of French foods.

Enthusiasm of the cheerleaders and the coveted Citizenship Awards reflect the character of the school. Important at the Award's Day program is the announcement of the Citizenship winners, a boy and a girl from each class. Selection is determined by students and faculty on a basis of scholastic excellence, character, participation in school and community activities.

"Over the Rainbow," theme of the Prom, was carried out in decorations which transformed the boy's gym into a dream come true, complete with castle. Even though memories of the Prom linger, seniors must face reality, for graduation is the culmination of the study and activities of four years, and the termination of one phase of life and the beginning of another.

Four Years of Challenge

Patricia Duggan and Sarah Hermanson inspect their work in Miss Johnson's Print Etching class.

We graduate, and suddenly, there is the realization that the years have been more than spectacular fun and enjoyment. There has been a learning process through academic opportunities at York. Because a school year is both recreation and academic achievement, the story of the year must include each.

The value of the educational program of a school lies in the opportunities, but its success is marked by the measure of interest and progress it creates among the students. That York's academic program is a successful one is recorded here through revealing scenes of achievement in all departments.

Debate offers affirmative team Joseph Biancalana and Robert Boostrom a good opportunity to develop conscientious listening habits and constructive criticism while they analyze the negative case as given by Jerry Ferry and Thomas Bonjour.

Always searching for new and better ways to progress, the English Department expanded its team teaching project this year. Members of the team, Mrs. Yvonne Lundquist, Mr. Bruce Siewerth, and leader Mr. Donald Ericksen, employ instruction with large groups as well as in regular and seminar-sized sections.

Instructors teaching their specialties, students experiencing a variety of teaching personalities and viewpoints prove to be advantages of this type of education.

Language Department Encourages World Communication

Multi-lingual education is offered through the study of French, German, Latin, and Spanish. In so doing, the language department provides a basis for better communication and increased world understanding. Classroom study is augmented by the extensive use of audio and visual aids throughout the program.

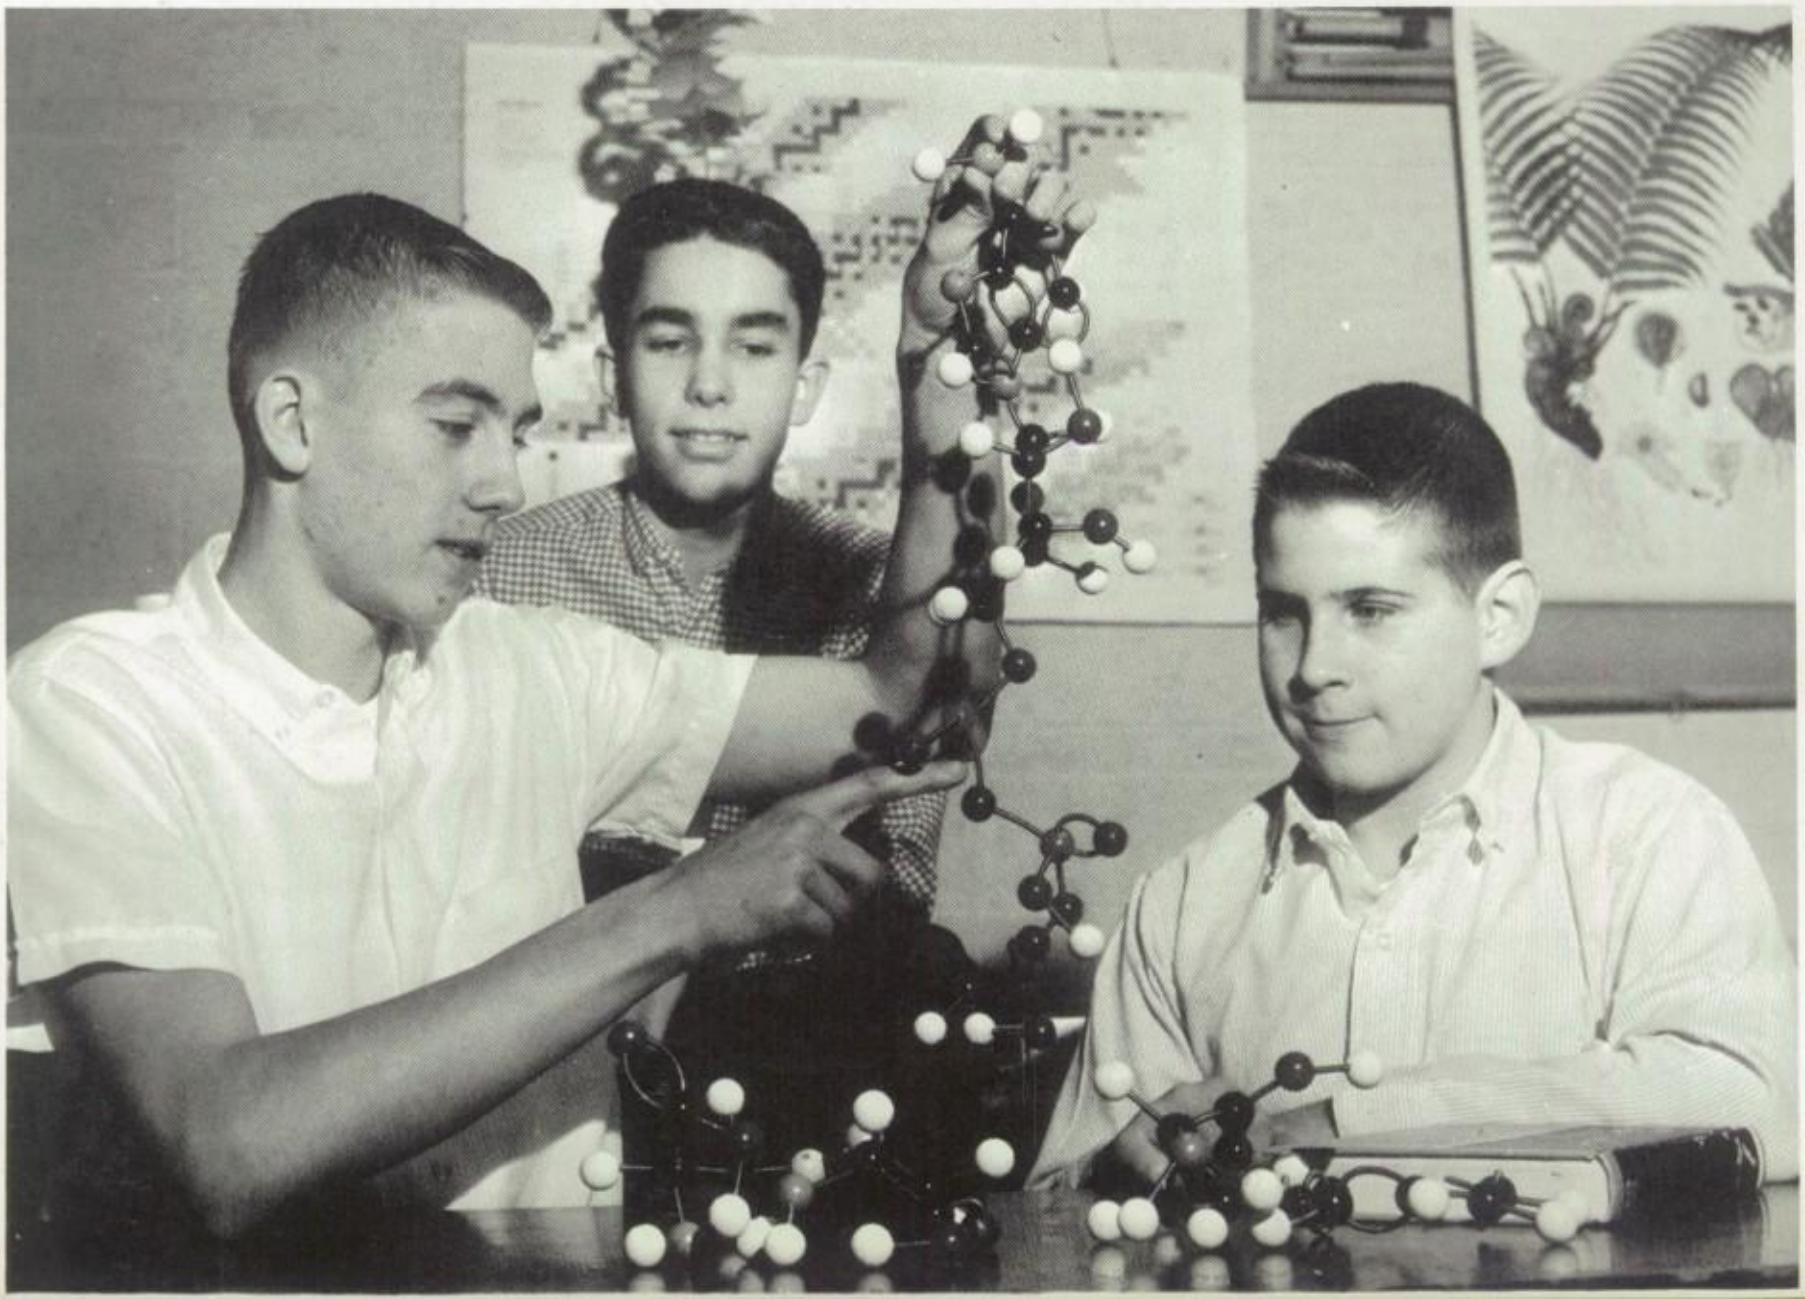
Science Offers Challenge of the Future

In Biology John Sonnenberg, Ray Dupont, and Tom Schriener construct organic molecules that have important functions in living cells.



Class study and experimental work in the laboratory help science students to understand and meet the challenge of our ever-changing times. This opportunity provides the student with necessary knowledge to appreciate the rapid scientific development of the day.

Council Promotes Strong Student Leadership

Student Council develops cooperation between students and faculty, and provides a strong student leadership for York. Homeroom representatives and four hold-over members aid in solving problems confronting the council. Besides planning the traditional Homecoming and the Christmas hall decorations, this group does extensive research to find ways to help improve York. Increasing school spirit and encouraging good sportsmanship are major council projects. Mr. R. W. Brown and Mr. W. G. Zibart are the faculty advisers.

Claudia Genoud from Mendoza, Argentina

Student Council Guides Yorkites

This year the American Field Service committee is sponsoring Claudia Genoud as York's guest from Mendoza, Argentina. Through various money making projects, students like Claudia are given the rare opportunity to study in foreign countries.

Under the leadership of Sue Stoker, York's student to Scotland last summer, the AFS committee functions as a vital part of Student Council. Anne Hinchliff and Sigrid Pearson are the year's nominees for the summer program, and Lora Van Zyl and Pete Schneider are nominees for the full year exchange.

Orchestra Maintains Record of Concert Excellence

Traveling through Western Michigan on a concert tour this spring was one important event of the year for the concert orchestra. Presenting fall and spring concerts, participating in the annual Christmas concert, and sponsoring "Bali Hai D'way," an all school dance with a night club atmosphere were other major activities. The string group accepted the invitation of Northern Illinois University and played as guest orchestra at a day string clinic held there in January. This group brings honors annually to York with awards won at state contests. Mr. Leo Pondelick is the director of these musicians.

"Ein Deutsches Fest" Highlights German Club Year

York's German club is proof that the study of a foreign language can be both educational and fun. Besides creating interest in conversational German, this club also offers opportunity to learn more of the country's traditions. Highlighting this year's activities was "Ein Deutches Fest" which was sponsored by the club. Authentic German atmosphere, food, and songs contributed to the gaiety. A favorable response to this festival was indicated by a record turnout. The club sponsor, is Mrs. Diana Werber. Any student receiving a B in first semester German, or who is studying second year German is eligible for membership.

Girls' Club Provides Valuable Service for School

Faced with the unique problem of having too many members, Girls' Club was forced to split into groups, a frosh-soph club and a junior-senior club. The board, which serves as a steering committee for both groups, consists of the officers and representatives of each class. Planning the monthly meetings and the annual Girls' Club Dance are but a few of their responsibilities. Mrs. Mildred Topinka is sponsor of this group.

GIRLS' CLUB BOARD. Business Club Studies Career Opportunities

Business Career Club, formerly the Commercial Club, has a new outlook with its new name. Executives speaking at almost every meeting provide first-hand information concerning careers. Field trips to industrial firms and business machine shows acquaint members with modern equipment and trends in the business world. Students who complete a semester of a business course with at least a C average may become members. Miss Arlene Ries and Mr. Harold Randol sponsor this group.

Royal Game of Chess Challenges Members

Competitive meets with other schools have helped to create and maintain that special enthusiasm shown by all Chess Club members. Highlighting this year's schedule was a victory over Willowbrook. Designed to stimulate and encourage the "royal game," Chess Club is not a social endeavor. Mr. Donald Ericksen is the sponsor.

Lettermen's Club Provides Leadership

Membership in Lettermen's Club is awarded to any boy who has received a letter in varsity sports. He must also be in at least one sport the year that he is in the club. Members may earn club pins and guards by participating in service events.

This year the Lettermen contributed special service during the Regional Basketball Tournament. They sold programs at football games. Serving as ushers at the home athletic events as well as operating the basketball line-up score board, and helping in the cafeteria were other valuable services performed by this group.

Initiation ceremony this spring was a highlight of the year. Mr. Lee Wachenheim is sponsor of the club.

Lettermen's Club Officers: Maury Kennedy, President; Bill Boyles, Sergeant at Arms; Bill Conroy, Secretary; Jack Marbarger, Vice-President; Frank Belletire, Treasurer.

Pep Club Officers: Janet Sieracki, President; Barb Sladek, Points Chairman; Bonnie Boyle, Secretary; Janet Anderson, Treasurer; Mary McEnerney, Points Chairman; Ginny Sittler, Vice-President.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. W. Johnson, Miss P. Vine, and Mrs. M. Feid, the Pep Club is active in building and maintaining strong school spirit through such activities as the block-Y, Dads' Day for the football and basketball seasons, and the election of Mr. and Miss Pep. Highlighting the year's projects was the Pep Club Dance, "Emerald Mist" on March 7th.

Dukes Turn in Best Season in 17 Years —Place 2nd in WSC

The York Dukes overcame dim prospects at the beginning of the season to romp to 2nd place finish in the rugged West Suburban Conference with a 6—1 record. The gridders overpowered such state ranked foes as Hinsdale, 14—13, and Downers Grove, 21—6, to end the campaign with four straight triumphs. Head Coach Alex Naidenovich and Assistant Coach William Mueller both agreed that this was York's best squad since 1945, when the Green and White went undefeated.

Maury Kennedy was the only Duke selected for the all-conference team, but there were many others just as well qualified, showing the balance of the team. The co-captains for the Dukes this year were Jim Corzatt and Frank Belletire. Next year, several lettermen will return to bolster the Dukes for another fine season. Among them are defensive standout Neil Budelsky, quarterback Paul Suckow, end Ron McBride, and running threat Jim Paddock.

Janulis Gains 1060 Yards to Lead F-S Gridders

Having their ups and downs at the outset of the season, Coach Don Layne's Barons finished fast and garnered a tie for third in the WSC with a 4—3 record.

Al Janulis, selected Most Valuable Player, sparked the underclass gridders by gaining a record 1060 yards, and 8.2 yards-per-carry average. Dean Hill, a fine team leader, was elected captain of the squad.

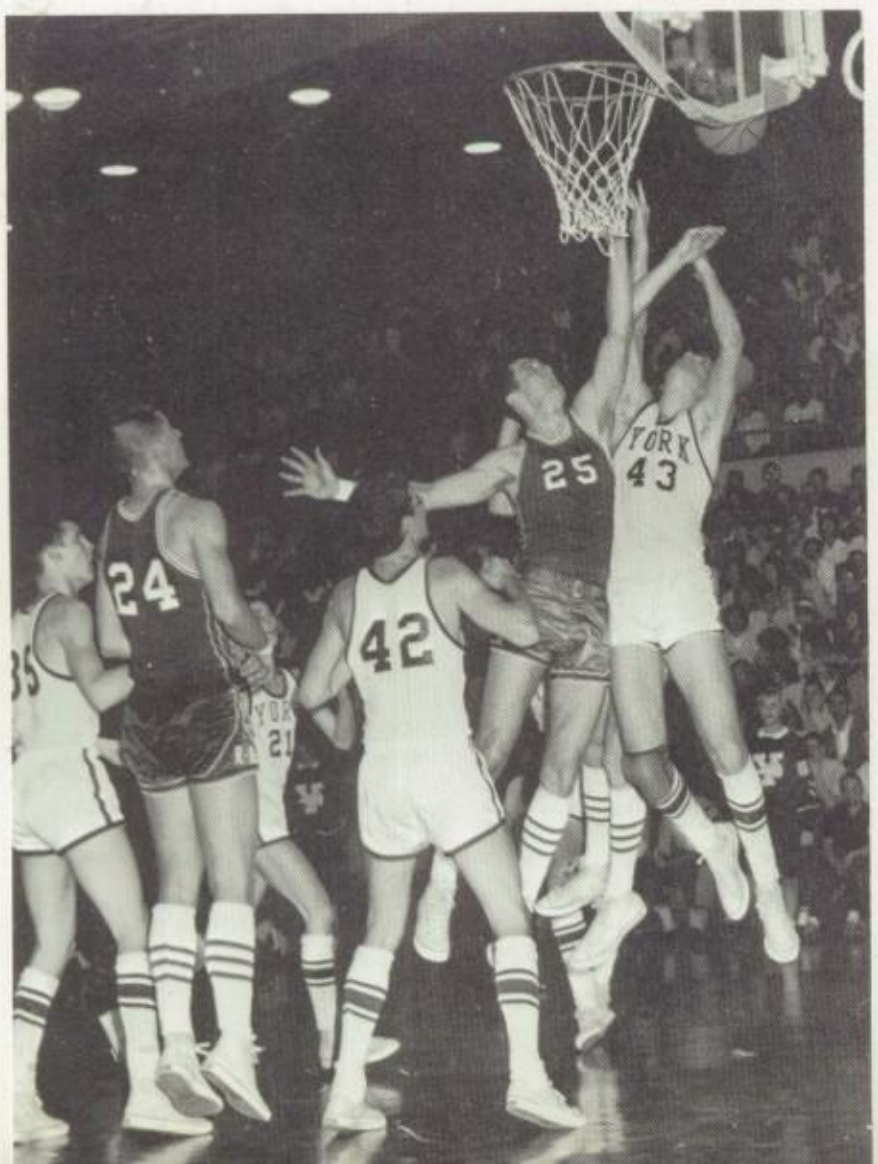
Freshman Bob Booth will be the only returning numeral winner as he was brought up early in the season to bolster the Baron's defense.

Many of the boys will move to the varsity squad to strengthen the upperclass veterans next year.

Coach Campbell voices strategy in crucial moments of close R-B contest.

Dukes Tie for 2nd in Rugged WSC

All-WSC Bruce Brackmann (43) pumps in two for Dukes. Others are Paul Suckow (35), Joel Goldblatt (21), and Butch Shatzer (42).



Coach Campbell's Dukes, although thwarted by West Leyden, 63—62, in Regional play, finished in a tie for second place in the WSC with an 11—3 record.

The Green and White crushed two highly rated foes, Maine East and Downers Grove, to close out the regular season. It was Maine's only WSC setback.

The Dukes placed three squad members—Bruce Brackmann, Joel Goldblatt, and Charlie Konrad on the All-WSC team.

Brackmann led the team in scoring with 451 points and was tops in the rebounding department with 333. He was voted the Most Valuable Player by his teammates.

Goldblatt was voted Most Improved Senior while Bill Koenig received similar honors for the junior players.

Mr. Richard Campbell is Varsity coach, and Mr. Kevin Corry coaches the JV's.

Barons Win Final

Two for 6th Place

The York Barons finished fast by trouncing Maine East and nipping Downers Grove to finish sixth in the rugged WSC loop with a 6—8 record.

The Frosh-Soph Cagers, led by Scott Fiene's 225 points and Jim Thompson's 168 rebounds, broke even for the season, winning 10 and losing 10. Mr. Cecil Stinson coached this team.

Varsity Grapplers Place 7th; F-S Tie for 2nd

York's Varsity grapplers took it on the chin this season with a 1—6 WSC campaign and a 3—10—1 record overall. Bob Bien was named Most Valuable while Jerry Wilson was elected captain.

For the underclass wrestlers, Don Connelly and Bob Booth tied for Most Valuable as they led the Barons to a 5—2 record, good enough for a tie for second in the WSC.

Bien, Mike Pikey, and Neil Budelsky were named to the newly formed All-WSC team.

Roy Hanschke placed fourth on the parallel bars while Homer Sardina was Coach Mahood's third state finisher, taking 10th on the trampoline.

The Green and White took third in the newly formed WSC and ended the season by taking ninth in the State meet. The Dukes had a 5—8 overall record.

The Frosh-Soph gymnasts placed second in the WSC with a 4—0 record and were 9—2—2 overall.

'63 Cindermen Take District Title

Compiling an over-all won—lost record of 14—1, York's Varsity Cindermen placed first in the District Meet and third in the WSC, in addition to firsts in the DuPage County Meet and the Rockford Relays.

York's greatest achievement during the 1962-1963 campaign was the National Indoor Championship for the two mile relay; the team won nationally in the same event outdoors.

With the distance runners paving the way, the Green and White's mile relay team posted the best time in the state meet trials. Under the direction of Coach Newton, twenty milers broke the five minute barrier.

The Frosh-Soph team placed first in the Conference Meet after completing the season with a near perfect record of 15—1. The Underclass Cindermen also copped first in the Proviso West Invitational.

The freshman team compiled a perfect 6—0 dual meet record, high-lighted by the Freshman Morton Invitational title.

Many of the thirty nine records set by last year's York track squads will long stand to serve as proof of a successful season.

Diamondmen Break Even for 5th in WSC

Coach Erl Ellingson's 1963 Varsity team copped 5th place in the rugged WSC, but the standings do not show all. The Dukes played 17 games, nine of which were decided by one run, and one was a tie. Out of these, the varsity won four and dropped five.

Individual standouts on the squad were, in batting, Maury Kennedy, Dick Adams, and Jim Peters, who batted .300, .281, and .250, respectively. Pitchers were Ward McCallister with a 1.75 Earned Run Average and Paul Sukow with a 1.30 ERA. The team as a whole batted .222 to their opponents .205.

After routing Fenton 19—0 and dropping a close 7—5 decision to Willowbrook in pre-season contests, the 1963 Frosh-Soph Barons, coached by Lee Wachenheim, proceeded to capture 5th place in the WSC with a 5—8—1 record.

Linksters Cop First Trophy

The 1963 Varsity Tennis Team copped 5th place in the West Suburban Conference, a mere one point away from fourth place and a first division finish. Jim Dawson and Jim Paddock tallied second places in the WSC at first and second singles, respectively. The Dukes' high point of the campaign was a second place in the State District behind powerful Hinsdale. The Varsity netmen, coached by Robert Paddock, have a good opportunity to move in the '64 season with returning lettermen Jim Paddock, Dick Fisher, and Carl Landwehr.

A golf championship has finally come to York! Coach Tom Nelson's Frosh-soph linksters copped the West Suburban Conference championship by winning the dual race and triumphing in the WSC Tournament with a record low of 325 strokes. Sophomores Rick Carlson, Ron Kornfeind, and John Kreutz, and Freshmen George Rosenhagen and Dave Lindstrom stroked the Barons to a 6—1 record and an 11—2 overall slate. The Varsity linksters shot fine golf but ran into several red hot teams as they compiled a 3—4 WSC record and a 7—5—1 mark overall. Captain Don Coppin, John Wallace and Junior Jim Nellis led the Dukes and were ably supported by letter winners Bill Shipman, Mack Gadd, Jim Carlson, and Brad Gurman. One of the highlights of the season was tying the York record of 32 strokes.

Intramurals Provide Fun For All

Tom Brigg's team garnered the Senior Championship in intramurals this year. Over 200 boys competed. Sponsored by Mr. D. Larson and Mr. T. Nelson, each team on the upperclass level played a 10 game slate. A Junior squad captained by Jeff Licht placed first in that division.

GAA Members Enjoy Variety of Activities

York's Girls' Athletic Association, affiliated with a statewide organization, offers to members opportunities to participate in basketball, softball, volleyball, archery, tennis, bowling, tumbling and apparatus, and orchesis. Girls earn points toward year's awards by competing in after school games. Miss Margaret Lacey is GAA sponsor. Mrs. Louise Nettleton directs orchesis, and Mrs. C. Burgess coaches the tennis team.

Kathy,
Well the school year is nearly over. 2 more days. I really didn't get to know you that well, but you seem like a wonderful person. Stay that way. I hope we can become better friends someday. Hope to see ya in the summer. Stay as cute, sweet, and mischievous as you are. God bless.

Love ya,
Wanda

Dr. R. Bruce Allingham,
District 88 Superintendent.

Superintendent Studies Map of District 88 Area

Opportunities for residential growth and development, seemingly unlimited in suburban DuPage County, may be very gratifying to realtors and city planners, but they create king-sized headaches for educators who try desperately to maintain strong educational programs with facilities and resources which seem always to have limited expansion qualities. York and Willowbrook High Schools are now at top capacity with a total of 6,160 students, so Dr. Allingham, Superintendent of District 88, is searching intently for locations for additional schools which eventually may be required to house a total of 15,000 students.

Administrators and Board Plan for District 88 Students

Mr. Bert H. Michelsen, Principal, inspires York's 3,100 students to greater achievement.

Happy, indeed, is the person who recognizes opportunities as they arise. Fortunate indeed is the person who avails himself of them. One of the greatest strengths of our society rests upon the underlying philosophy which has created so many opportunities for our citizens. The number of choices available to us in a free society must be fully appreciated if we are to be enlightened, participating citizens.

Being human we do not always acknowledge that a period of training has, in truth, represented an opportunity in itself, and has given to us an insight for recognizing subsequent opportunities more readily.

This book affords a vivid record of a school year, and a salute to those who are about to embark on new phases of their lives. As the years roll by I trust they will look back and appreciate that opportunities presented themselves frequently in this significant four-year span.

Bert H. Michelsen, Principal

York Actors Present "Arms and the Man"

Nicola (George Koch) calls to Louka (Sara Lewis), "Be warned in time!"

The York Drama Department presented George Bernard Shaw's satire on love and war, "Arms and the Man," March 13,14. The play told the story of the Petkoff family and the effect war had on its members. Mrs. Yvonne Lundquist, Director and Mr. Bruce Siewerth, Technical Director were assisted by a student crew in producing this drama.

"How did you find me out?" Raina (Lisa Kiser) asks Captain Bluntchli (Ted Hild).

Raina (Lisa Kiser), Major Petkoff (Mike Hitchcock), Madame Petkoff (Carol Seabright) perform in a scene in Act III.

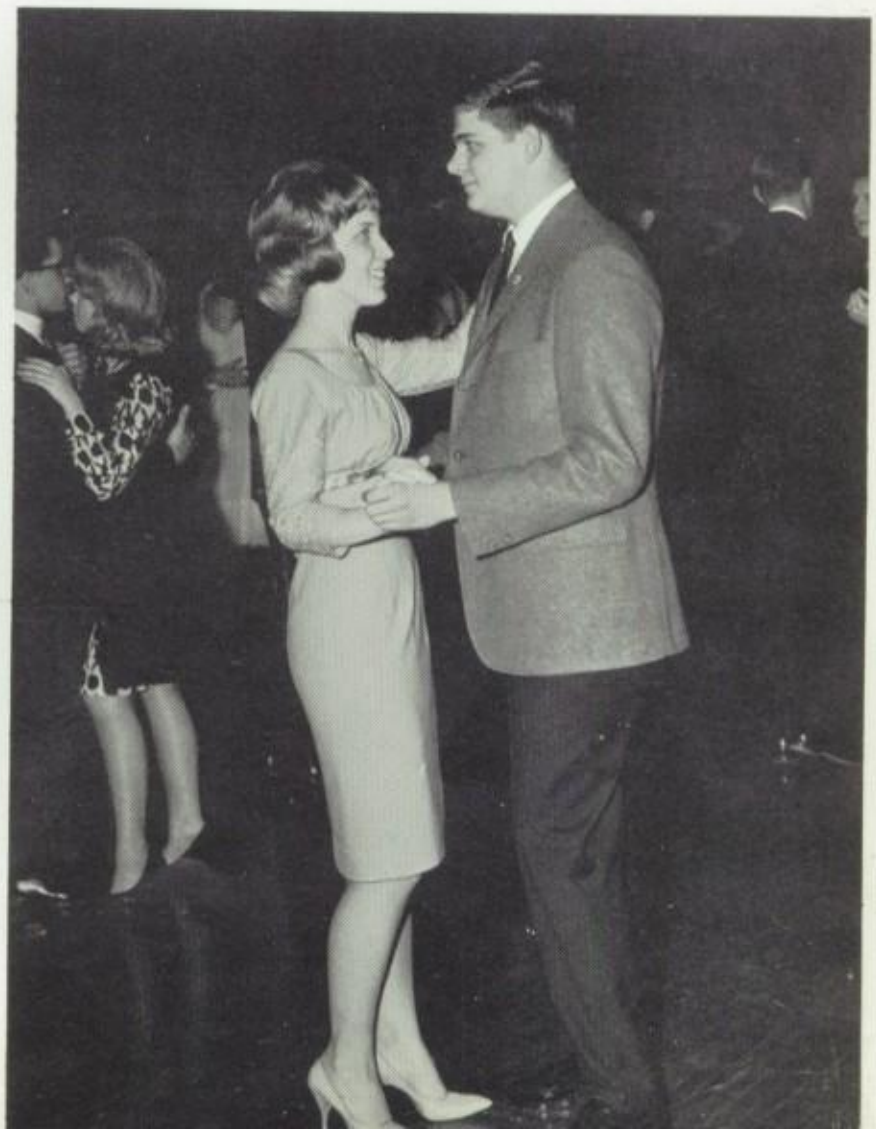
In Memoriam
Colin Beckman

Athletes crowned as "Dukes" of sportsmanship at the Pep Club dance, "Emerald Mist," were Bruce Brackmann, Bob Bien, Sam Richards, Spencer Sartorius. Here for the crowning are Bob, Sue Larson, Bruce, Nanci Gorski, Nancy Temple, Bruce McGee, Mary McEnerney, Sue Graff.

Pep Club Awards Titles for Sportsmanship

Girls' Club promotes Bow Week to encourage class loyalty. They sell green bows to frosh, yellow to sophs, red to juniors, white to seniors. Mike Beecroft, Jack Schneider, Betty Sellers buy white bows.

Pep Club Board selected Nancy Temple and Bruce McGee as the two seniors showing the most enthusiasm for all teams. They were named Mr. and Miss Pep at a pep rally February 21.



JUNIORS

DEAR CATHY——
CAN'T THINK OF ANYTHING TO WRITE!
I'M SPEECHLESS
THAT YOU ASKED ME TO SIGN
YOUR BOOK!
HAVE FUN
THIS SUMMER
WITH JAY!

Adult Evening School

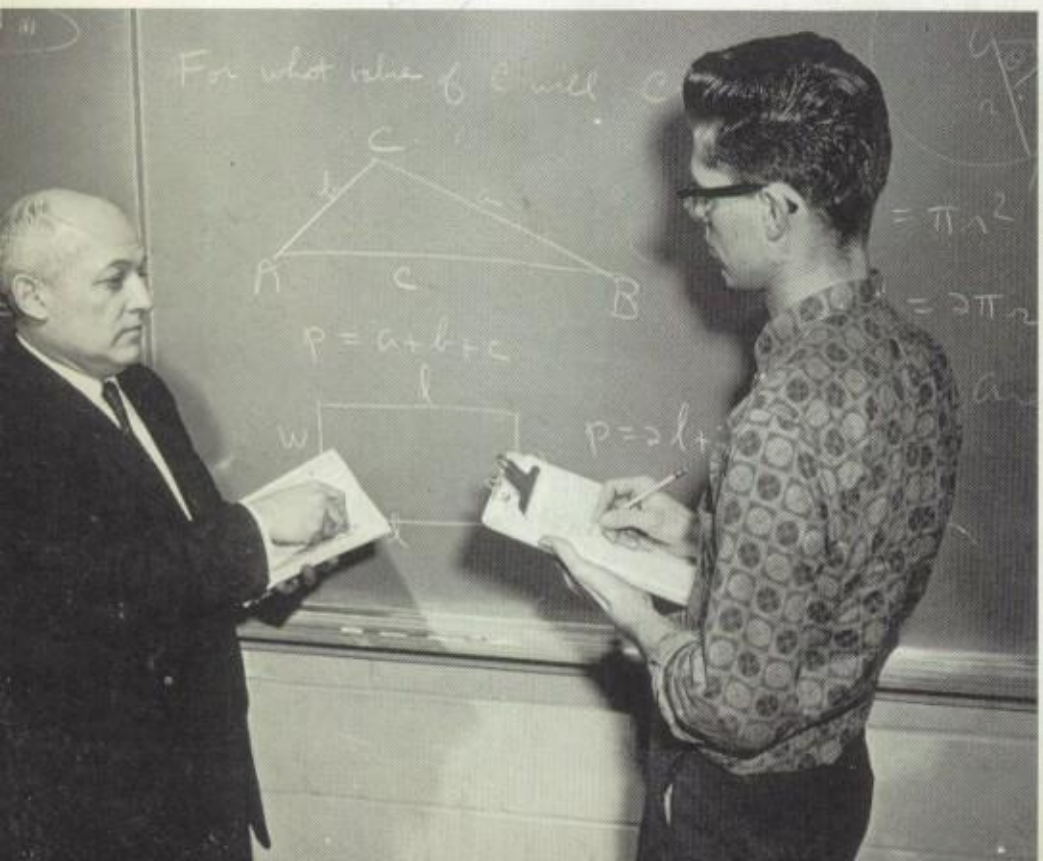
Serves 6,000 Students

Serving 6,000 adults each year in this area with classes at York and Willowbrook is the Adult Evening School of District 88. It provides opportunities to learn through informal educational classes, University of Illinois extramural courses, and specially designed seminars.

Other offerings include trade and industrial courses, travel film lecture series, educational tours, driver's training, piloting and small boat handling courses, high school equivalency diploma tests, high school courses, counseling service, school board seminars.

Dr. W. Treloar, an Administrative Assistant of District 88 is Director.

A math refresher course gives valuable information. Mr. Leon Benson is the instructor.



Students review Illinois and United States Constitutions with Mr. Henry Hitt.

George Shatzer holds the attention of the crowd with his one and one charity shot.

Cathy, don't forget the fun we had at the games. Stay sweet
Love Ya

The radiator has quit banging, the file is locked, the lights are out, and the copy has been mailed—the 1964 Y's Tales is completed! Many long, hard hours during and after school have been spent by the staff in writing the story of Opportunities at York, 1964. It's far from perfect, but please forgive the mistakes and enjoy the rest. Acknowledgment is here made for support and special help from the following: Mr. E. C. Hackleman, representative of the printers of Y's Tales, American Yearbook Company; Mr. Leander Haggerty and Mr. Sam Becker, Gibson Studios; Miss Marian Johnson, Art Staff Director; Mrs. Lucile Albert, Y's Tales Director; York Administration and Faculty; Mrs. Thor Holter; the Y's Tales Staff, and the entire student body of York who made this book possible.
